

Please do not relax the ban on cross-ownership. We already have too many "news" outlets spewing the same slant. We need a diversity of voices to be heard, without everybody owned by one giant mega-corporation, saying the same things so as not to upset the "company line."